Interim Pastor
at First Baptist church

Sam Goddard, moderator of First Baptist Church, of China, has announced Rev. Dr. Glenn T. Miller, as the new interim pastor of that church.

Rev. Miller is a son to be retired Waldo professor of ecclesiastical history at the Bangor Theological Seminary, a position he has held since 1992.

During his time at Bangor Theological Seminary, Rev. Miller wrote several articles that were published, including American Protestant Theological Education, — The Modern Church: From the Dawn of the Reformation to the Eve of the Third Millennium.

Said Dr. Miller: "Christianity has changed throughout its history as churches and individuals have rethought their faith and restricted its institutional expression. In studying Christian history, we enter into a conversation with the pat about its deepest convictions and most cherished beliefs. This dialogue challenges our own temporal parochialism".

Our Vision:

To enhance the quality of life

Our Mission:

To create a vibrant rural community connecting our towns, organizations and individuals through communication, education, and public dialogue.

Our Goals:

- Publish a weekly, non-partisan, balanced newspaper.
- Be a sustainable nonprofit organization.
- Build good community relations.

The Town Line Inc. Statement of Purpose

The Town Line Inc. not-for-profit organization's purpose is to promote and foster a growing, healthy, central Maine community comprising of China, Albion, Palermo, Windsor, Vassalboro, Winslow, Unity, Skowhegan and their environs, and the production of a free, local area newspaper to serve this community.
